

Ladies and Gentlemen, among our students there are those who due to their health condition, disability or other objective reasons, may have special needs related to the form of the class, assessment method or materials preparation. These students are asked to report for consultations, write such information in a private chat or write an e-mail about the matter. I will try to ensure that during my classes everyone has an equal right to gain knowledge and get a credit.